On the separation of optimal spherical configurations

Peter Dragnev

(Indiana University – Purdue University Fort Wayne)

Abstract

Spherical configuration with some optimal properties have wide-ranging application in science. In this talk we shall survey briefly the topic and focus on minimal energy configurations and in particular on their separation properties. Our techniques naturally lead to investigation of optimal configurations in the presence of external field. Numerical computations will be presented as well.