

The minor in Leadership Studies allows for the exploration and study of leadership philosophies, theories and practices for the purpose of building interpersonal, group management, problem solving, critical thinking, decision making, motivation and communication skills through the study of leadership as a reflective process. Courses include service learning opportunities, and practical application opportunities. The Leadership Studies minor complements all majors and degree programs.

A – MINOR REQUIREMENTS – 18 HOURS (6 advanced)

- LDST 1301 Introduction to Leadership Studies
- LDST 2333 Leadership Skills Development
- LDST 2334 Personal and Organizational Leadership
- LDST 2335 Leadership for Community Engagement
- LDST 3325 Leadership, Diversity and Culture
- LDST 3327 Special Topics in Leadership