In one building our students are lighting up the world — and the cosmos — with their research in gravitational wave astronomy. In another, students are working with award-winning faculty to find new ways to treat and prevent common diseases through the principles of genetics and genomics.

These are just SOME of the things our students are up to.

This is your opportunity to step up,

JOIN THE VAQUERO FAMILY, AND MAKE IT HAPPEN.

REAL-WORLD RESEARCH & EXPERIENCE

As UTRGV embarks on a new journey of “Research Excellence”, we are meticulously working on strategic, tactical, and operational initiatives that will enable interdisciplinary research, faculty research development, and enriched scholarly activities across the institution.

From this perspective, the Graduate College plays a key role by providing students with the highest-quality graduate education opportunities, including outstanding academic experiences in cutting-edge research and professional development.

Dr. Can (John) Saygin
Senior Vice President for Research and Dean of the Graduate College

There are only 135 U.S. institutions classified as R2 for their high research activity, one of which is UTRGV. Our world-class research has quickly elevated us to just one level away from the highest Carnegie classification of Tier One. That’s a pretty big deal for a university that’s just getting started.
