

L. Angel Pena

Luis Angel Peña is a Program Specialist for UTRGV Arts, where he applies his extensive background in music and technical support to enhance the performing arts. A native of Donna, Texas, Luis earned a Bachelor's degree in Music Education, solidifying his foundation in the arts. His expertise spans across the technical aspects of performing arts, with a particular focus on lighting and sound. Passionate about enriching cultural experiences in the Rio Grande Valley, Luis leverages his skills to support and promote local arts initiatives. His work at UTRGV Arts allows him to combine his love for music and performance with his technical training, fostering a deeper appreciation for the arts in his community.
