

Education Course Roadmap--EC-6 ESL Specialization

Fall 2022 Admits

The education course sequence as shown on this roadmap is mandatory. All admitted students must follow the course sequence listed in the table. We schedule courses based on the roadmap; if you get off sequence, we cannot guarantee that courses will be available when you want them.

Education Course Sequence for Fall 2022 ESL Admits
Fall 2022	Spring 2023	Summer 2023	Fall 2023	Spring 2024
EDCI 3331	EDCI 3333	Major area courses & TExES exams	EDCI 3335	EDCI 4637
EDCI 3332	EDCI 3334		EDCI 3336
EDSL 3310	EDSL 4306		EDSL 3326
EDSL 3322	EDSL 4308		EDSL 3320*
SPED 4310	READ 3324		Major area course

*EDSL 3320 is part of the degree plan beginning in 2020-2021 as a replacement for ENGL 4375. If you have an older degree plan that requires ENGL 4375, you can use EDSL 3320 as a substitution. Contact your program coordinator for more information.

In addition to the education courses listed in the table, EC-6 ESL students must complete their major area coursework.

- Education major area courses (must be taken before student teaching): READ 3320, READ 3350
- Major area courses outside of the College of Education (take any semester before graduation): ENGL 4360, ENGL 4375 (if not replaced with EDSL 3320) + all major area courses on degree plan

Certification Exams

In addition to your coursework you will need to complete certain state certification exams. Check with your department chair or program coordinator for information related to certification exams.
