Continuing Education
Division of Research, Graduate Studies & New Program Development

Intermediate Digital Photography

Our intermediate course takes things one step further with advanced shooting techniques, a study of more complex lighting issues, and how to successfully produce high-quality, professional photographs.

What You Will Learn

- Using advanced shooting techniques to capture a diverse portfolio of photographs

- Best practices for producing high-quality photographs

- Operating in environments with complex lighting issues
- Tools and techniques for planning photoshoots

Course Details

What Will You Learn Cont..

You will also learn:

• Tools and techniques for editing photographs

• Building uniqueness and personal styles into a photography portfolio

Description

Take photography to the next level in this fast-paced digital photography workshop designed for those who want to move past the basics and build on their existing technical and creative skills.

The skills learned in this course will help participants develop their own unique way of looking at the world through the camera lens. Participants will further develop their own unique personal style and navigate the complexity of planning, shooting, and editing photographs whether they are interested in exploring this as a hobby, or looking to become working photographers.

Who Should Attend?

People who want to take their knowledge of digital photography past the basics.

Location

Location McAllen:

1800 S. Main Street, Suite 1100

McAllen, TX 78503

Location Brownsville   :

One West University Boulevard

Brownsville, Texas 78520

Duration

4 Hours

Prerequisites

No prerequisites needed.

Requirements

For this session, participants can bring any type of digital camera.

Contact Us
UTRGV Continuing Education

McAllen Teaching Site:
1800 S. Main Street
Suite 1100
McAllen, TX 78503

Brownsville Campus:
One West University Blvd,
BMAIN 1.210K
Brownsville, TX 78520

Phone: (956) 665-2071

Phone: (956) 882-7711

continuinged@utrgv.edu

Website: www.utrgv.edu/ce