

Department/School: Teaching and Learning

Vision: As the largest Hispanic Serving Institution in the Continental US, our mission is to produce reflective and culturally and linguistically sustaining educators through a coherent teacher preparation program emphasizing the following four pillars

Mission: The four pillars are the center of our mission: (a) practice-based teacher education, (b) reflective inquiry, (c) technology integration, and (d) spiraled high leveraged practices. In producing critical educators for the Rio Grande Valley, the state of Texas, the region and beyond, we understand that collaborative relationships through community engagement and school partnerships provide the foundations of our efforts.
