

HISTORIC CERAMICS OF THE RIO GRANDE DELTA

If you have found ceramics like these or other historic artifacts, or are interested in learning more about CHAPS please visit us at: chaps@utpa.edu or contact Dr. Russell Skowronek at : rskowronek@utpa.edu

American- and English-made Ceramics @ 1800-1900

Ceramics of the Spanish Empire and Republic of Mexico @ 1750-1850

Creamware
1750-1820

Ironstone
1813-1900

Banded White
Wares

Hand Painted
White Ware

Late Painted (Gaudy Dutch)
1820-1840

Transfer Print
Red-Green

Transfer Printed
Pearlware
1795-1840

White Ware
1820-1900+

White Ware-Decorated

Ginger Beer Bottle

Lead Glaze
Ceramics
(Rey Ware 1730-1800)

Monterey Polychrome
1800-1830

Galera

Green Decorated Maiolicas

Maiolicas or Majolicas made in Mexico

Mexican Red Filmed
1680-1800

San Elizario Polychrome
1750-1850

Lead Glazed

Olive Jar-Storage

Puebla Blue on White
1700-1850

Blue on White Maiolicas

Chinese Made Porcelains

We wish to thank the University of Texas Pan American Anthropology Club for the creation of this poster.
Fall 2010

Artifacts depicted are drawn from the work of Mary Jo Galindo (2003) and that of William Athens and Russell Skowronek (1981)