

COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS FACULTY GRANTS

FY25 COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS TRAVEL GRANTS support faculty who engage in travel for research and creative activity. $500-1,000 per award

Criteria.

1. All full-time faculty, regardless of rank are eligible and encouraged to apply, but priority will be given to tenure-track faculty (i.e., an assistant professor).
2. Grant will support faculty travel for (but not limited to):
  - a. Presenting, performing, or exhibiting at academic or professional conferences/meetings.
  - b. Performing or exhibiting at national or international venues, with a priority given to peer-reviewed performances or exhibitions.
  - c. Conducting research or creative activities that are site specific (i.e., fulfilling a commission or collecting data).
3. Before applying, faculty should first have expended the $800 departmental travel distribution, and applied in at least one of the cycles (fall, spring, and summer) of the Faculty Travel Support Program through the Office of Faculty Success (<https://www.utrgv.edu/facultysuccess/programs-training/faculty-travel-support-program/index.htm>). Priority will be given to those faculty who were not funded through the Faculty Travel Support Program, but all faculty are encouraged to apply even if they did receive these funds.

Timeline. The timeline for the Faculty Travel Grant is:

Date	Activity
Any time	Faculty apply online . CFA Dean's Office will forward application to the College Leadership Council.
Subsequent CLC meeting	College Leadership Council will confer and make decisions regarding the application.
Following CLC meeting	CFA Dean's Office will notify faculty mentor of the CLC's decision and will make arrangements for use of the grant funds.
April/May	Grant recipients will be announced at the College of Fine Arts Awards Reception