

College of Health Professions Interprofessional Education Fellows Present:

A Webinar Series: Introduction to Healthcare Profession Programs in the COHP at the University of Texas-Rio Grande Valley

Healthcare team members from Health & Biomedical Sciences (BMED), and Communication Sciences & Disorders (COMD) invite you to join them in an exploration of their careers. During this seminar, you will hear from students in these two programs, as well as practitioners in the field!

The student and practitioner presenters are:

BMED Professional: Dr. Rolando Hernandez Trapero, Ph.D. (BMED Alumni) - Postdoctoral Research Fellow - Medical Research Council (MRC) Human Genetics Unit - University of Edinburgh, Scotland

BMED Student: Omar Benavides - Undergraduate Research Assistant, Department of Psychological Sciences - BMED Student

SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY Professionals:

Lily Garza, M.S., CCC-SLP, Clinical Assistant Professor

Ruth Crutchfield, SLP.D., CCC-SLP, Associate Professor

Jessica Stewart, PhD., CCC-SLP, Assistant Professor

SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY Student: Rosa Benavidez-Saldivar, B.S., COMD Graduate Student

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE Professional: Rosemary Liñan Landa, Ed.D., ASLI Program Coordinator

AUDIOLOGY Professional: Dr. Sandy Magallan, Au.D., CCC-A, Clinical Assistant Professor

Opportunity to ask questions during a live panel discussion following all presentations.

Date: Friday, April 16, 2021

Time: 12:00PM - 1:00PM

Zoom link for the webinar will be emailed upon registration.

REGISTER HERE

UTRGV |  UT Health
Rio Grande Valley

.....
College of Health Professions