

SOCIAL JUSTICE AND

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

A BMS degree in Social Justice and Community Engagement interweaves GWST, ENST, and MAS to cultivate interdisciplinary and holistic frameworks for analyzing social, political, cultural, economic, and environmental issues.

This program offers a highly flexible degree plan with minors in:

- Gender and Women's Studies
- Environmental Studies
- Mexican American Studies

Prepare for careers in:

- Legislative Advocacy
- Politics
- Public Service
- Human Services
- Non-profit/human-rights
- Peace Organizations
- Education
- Community Organizing

100% ONLINE

CREATE YOUR IDEAL MAJOR

If you have completed the core curriculum or have earned a minimum of 60 credits you can select the concentrations that appeal to you and combine them, creating your own specialized degree.

DEGREE PLAN

A - GENERAL EDUCATION CORE - 42 HOURS

Students must fulfill the General Education core requirements.

B - MAJOR REQUIREMENTS - 54 HOURS

(Each minor has a specific number of required advanced hours. Check for each requirement for each minor.)

- Gender and Woman's Studies - 18 Hours
 - Environmental Studies - 18 Hours
 - Mexican American Studies - 18 Hours

C - FREE ELECTIVES - 24 HOURS

(6 hours advanced)

TOTAL CREDIT HOURS FOR GRADUATION - 120 HOURS

TOTAL ADVANCED HOURS - 42 HOURS

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Contact Dr. Friederike Bruehoefener at bms@utrgv.edu

And visit our website:

utrgv.edu/multidisciplinary