I will always be grateful to Dr. John Doe, chair of my dissertation committee, for all his mentoring and advice. From database funding, research design, and data processing to manuscript editing, he encouraged me to complete this process through his infinite patience and guidance. My thanks go to my dissertation committee members: Dr. Maria Smith, and Dr. Robert Garza. Dr. Susan Jones has been an invaluable editor of my content. Their advice, input, and comments on my dissertation helped to ensure the quality of my intellectual work.

I would also like to thank the Texas Teachers Association for their contributions.

I would also like to thank my colleagues at the UTRGV library who helped me locate supporting documents for my research. Also, I would like to acknowledge the many volunteers who participated in the focus group research.
