Best Practices

- Don't hesitate to reach out to instructor to ask your questions and seek clarifications on anything not clear to you.
- Do enough research and line up all your resources before you start doing your assignments/projects.
- Plan good chunks of time for projects and assignments.
- Plan online study groups to support each other.
- Get familiarized with plagiarism and academic integrity.
- Check out library resources and journals relevant to the course you are taking.