Holiday Leave. Paid holiday leave is provided to employees who are appointed to work at least 20 hours per week for a period of at least four and one-half continuous months. Employees appointed less than full-time but at least 20 hours per week are eligible for a holiday leave proportionate to the number of hours appointed.

Holiday Compensatory Time. Employees who work on a holiday will receive equivalent time off within the 12-month period following the holiday worked.

Optional Holidays. The legislature has designated Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Cesar Chavez Day, and Good Friday as optional holidays. A holiday pay-eligible employee may observe optional holidays by working on any holiday in which a skeleton workforce is required or by using applicable accrued leave.

* With the exception of essential services.

For UT Health RGV, Urgent Care, HEB Clinics, and Patient Community Center, the work schedules will be communicated by UT Health RGV to the respective areas.
