Person of Interest (POI) – An individual who is not an employee or a student, is formally designated by a UTRGV employee to be granted a temporary affiliation to the university in order to support institutional activities for a short term or limited purpose. The individual is not compensated for the activities through a fee-for-services agreement or otherwise paid directly by UTRGV.

1. POI ROTC – An individual engaged in teaching, instructing, or other training through the Department of Military Science's ROTC program in support of preparing students for officer responsibilities in active-duty Army, Army Reserves, or Army National Guard.

2. POI Volunteer – An individual who is approved as a university guest according to ADM 04-208, Volunteer Service.

3. POI Vendor/Contractor – An individual who requires access to UTRGV campus facilities or university systems based on a contract between their employer and UTRGV.

4. POI Collaborator – An individual who collaborates with a PI/Grant for the purpose of supporting institutional academic research and or clinical research.

5. POI Visiting Scholar – An individual who is designated solely by the International Office and requires a temporary account to access university systems and limited campus facilities in support of scholarly activities, typically under the mentorship of a UTRGV faculty member.

6. POI Community Faculty – A non-full-time, often volunteer physician or professional designated solely by the Division of Health Affairs (HA) for the purpose of contributing to institution's academic and/or clinical enterprise will not have access to patient records or visit UT Health RGV clinical facilities.

7. POI Clinical Community Faculty - A non-full-time, often volunteer physician or professional designated solely by the Division of Health Affairs (HA) for the purpose of contributing to institution's academic and/or clinical enterprise through education, research (human health; patient care), and/or clinical services, pursuant to an academic affiliation agreement and/ or a clinical services agreement and an active Memorandum of Appointment (MOA). These POIs have access to UTRGV patient information and/or visit UT Health RGV clinical facilities.

8. POI Instructor – An individual in the Professional Education & Workforce Development Office serving as a specialized training instructor who delivers high-quality, industry-aligned training to professionals.

9. POI Guest – An individual who does not fall within any other POI title or category and requires temporary UTRGV access for up to 4 weeks annually.