Thank you for serving as a Student Employee Supervisor!

Welcome to The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) Student Employment Office (SEO). This office employs over 2,500 students on campus every year, performing a variety of occupations that significantly contribute to the functioning of UTRGV departments throughout the valley. The Student Employment Office provides students employment opportunities, where they can expand, and combine their educational learning with direct hands on skills they will acquire while working at UTRGV.

By working on campus, not only will it provide students with extra money to spend but it will give them the opportunity to gain experience for their future career endeavors. In addition, proper supervision and mentorship, will foster increased sense of career readiness and professionalism in order for our students to be successful in their careers after graduation. Our statistics demonstrate that, by working on campus, students improve their grades, have higher retention rates, and complete a degree in less time.

This Student Employment Supervisor Handbook contains guidelines, rules and regulations, rights and responsibilities that a supervisor must follow when employing a student at UTRGV. Read this handbook carefully to be familiarized with all policies and procedures on campus to maximize the benefits and experiences of student employment.

All students who accept a student employment position at The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley, are bound to the university policies and procedures, and are accountable for their actions and behaviors as articulated in The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley student conduct code. Student employees are at-will employees who may be terminated with or without cause and with or without notice at any time by the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley. This handbook does not alter the at-will nature of any student employee's position at this university.

UTRGV will provide reasonable accommodations for the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability under the law. For additional information, visit Student Accessibility Services webpage.

INTRODUCTION

Requirements and Eligibility

Student Employment Program consists of part-time jobs for students who are currently enrolled at the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley. These jobs include Direct Wage, Work-Study, and Assistantships for Graduate Students.

Student employment positions are reserved for actively enrolled students (at least 6 credit hours), as a work study or direct wage assignment to supplement financial assistance. Note: The enrollment requirement for work-study may possibly be less than 6 credits, depending on the type of work study funding the student is eligible for. This policy is to ensure that UTRGV student direct wage dollars are provided to actively enrolled students. Students are no longer eligible for student employment assignments after graduation. Student employees are paid semi-monthly and may work up to 19 hours per week. Pay rate ranges from $8.00 up to $13 per hour based on the tasks performed (in some cases the hourly rate can exceed that, but approval is required). Pay rate and/or hours may vary per department, category, and/or experience.

Through on-campus employment, students will be able to gain work experience and professional skills, network in their field of interest, and best of all earn a paycheck, which ultimately will pay for their education without ever having to leave campus.

**International students with F-1 Visa are eligible for on-campus employment and require approval from the International Admissions and Students Services.*

Part-Time Non-Students: This classification is for non-student individuals performing a job duty that requires specific training certification or degree that a student does not have.

\ Any part-time position that does not require a specific training certification or a bachelor's degree to perform clerical duties, MUST be performed by a student employee. Students cannot be classified under a non-student job title.*

To be eligible for student employment Direct Wage, the student must be enrolled at least half time (6 credit hours) each Fall and Spring semesters and meet Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirements. To continue working through the summer, the student is not required to enroll for courses during the summer; however, must be enrolled in the incoming fall semester with a minimum of 6 credit hours.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT PROCESS

I. Creating Supervisor Handshake Profile

In order to be able to search for students and temporary employees in Handshake, every hiring official needs to create a profile. Before creating a profile, a user account must be created by the Student Employment Office (SEO). Most supervisors already have a user account which allows him/her to access Handshake. However, any supervisor who cannot access Handshake when in <https://my.utrgv.edu>, must contact SEO at studentemployment@utrgv.edu for user account setup assistance or for troubleshooting.

Note: If you are a new faculty or staff employee and need access to Handshake, creating your own user account will not grant you access as your user account must be created and approved by SEO. Once the supervisor user account has been created and/or is properly working, the hiring official will be able to create his/her profile and/or update it if changes are needed.

SEO has created a Creating Supervisor Handshake Profile guide which gives step-by-step instructions (with screenshots) for creating a Handshake Profile and updates changes if needed.

If you need assistance logging into Handshake or experiencing user access issues, please contact SEO-Human Resources at studentemployment@utrgv.edu.

II. Searching for a Student Employee

The Student Employment Office has created generic Handshake job postings, which can be utilized during the recruitment process. This was done since most departments search for students to perform routine support job duties. The generic job postings are based on job descriptions that are generic in nature and will more easily facilitate the recruitment process of students seeking employment. Any supervisor can automatically access the postings and review the list of applicants who have expressed interest in a student employment position.

Generic Job Postings (for New Hires)

- 10039 (Summer or Fall/Spring) WS Graduate Student Assistant
- 10051 (Summer or Fall/Spring) WS Student Academic Tutor
- 10053 (Summer or Fall/Spring) WS Student Academic Assistant

- 10054 (Summer or Fall/Spring) WS Student Assistant
- 10055 (Summer or Fall/Spring) WS Student Project Associate
- 10057 (Summer or Fall/Spring) DW Student Academic Tutor
- 10058 (Summer or Fall/Spring) DW Student Academic Assistant
- 10059 (Summer or Fall/Spring) DW Student Assistant
- 10060 (Summer or Fall/Spring) DW Student Project Associate

These generic job postings will appear under the division (department) Human Resources and Talent Devt when searching for Jobs in Handshake by Division. In addition to searching for student employees using these generic postings, a hiring official can also use the database to search for students within handshake and can filter a search by either major, unique experience or by name.

SEO has created a Searching for a Student Employee (Pg.6) guide which gives step-by-step instructions (with screenshots) for how to search for a student employee using the generic job postings.

Note: A job posting created by the department is permitted and supported only for positions that require unique job duties, where the department requires the student to have certain job skills/educational background vital to fulfill the position and is unable to find a student in Handshake that matches these requirements.

III. Hiring a Student

- CBC, I-9 and Onboarding Required Student Documents: Once you have identified a student for hire, please contact the student and communicate the news. After a start date has been set, there are several steps that will need to be completed by the student. The student must complete the Criminal Background Check (CBC), Online I-9 and Onboarding documents and visit Human Resources to certify documents. This information (links below) can be shared with the hired student as soon as a decision has been made so that the student may start by the anticipated start date.
  - New Student Employee: All potential student employees who will be working for the university for the first time, must complete the electronic I-9 and CBC forms, prior to the first day of work.

Submission of CBC:

1. CBC must submitted at: <https://utrgv.quickapp.pro/apply/applicant/new/5385>
2. No assignment will be approved until the CBC has cleared. The CBC must be submitted as soon as possible as it may take 3-5 business days to clear.

A CBC is also needed when:

1. A change in status (Student Employee to Full Time Staff)
2. Transfers or Promotions

Submission of I-9 and Onboarding documents:

Federal law requires new employees of UTRGV to establish identity and eligibility (social security number) to work in the United States. The I-9 link and onboarding information will be provided to new hire by the hiring official.

1. Online I-9 must be submitted at:
<https://secure.i9.talx.com/preauthenticated/LoginCAPTCHA.ascx?Employer=17817>
2. Student must visit the Human Resource Office to certify documents
3. Student must Complete Onboarding paperwork (New Employee Required Documentation) at Biographical Data Form if this is the first time working for UTRGV
4. For additional information visit the Handbook of Operating Procedures link.

ii. *Returning Student Employee:

If the returning student employee has had a break of employment of six months or more, the CBC will be required. The I-9 is required only if the student hire has had a break of employment with UTRGV of two years or more.

b. Submission of cPAF / ePAF based on current assignment status of the student

- a. When submitting the PAF you will be required to enter a Job ID number on the form, in this field please enter the Job Class Code of the job title used. This is a 5 digit number starting with a 1 (example: 10059 for the job title of Student Assistant).
- b. Use the PAF Portal <https://hro.utrgv.edu/portal/default.asp> or go through the <https://my.utrgv.edu> link from the UTRGV homepage. Tip: Chrome works best.
- c. The guide for creating an ePAF or CPAF can be accessed at : ePAF System training
- d. Please keep in mind that the PAF process can take up to 2 weeks, therefore the PAF should be created in advanced to avoid timecard issues.
- e. The Electronic Personnel Action Form (ePAF) is used to propose a new student employee who has never been employed at UTRGV and has not worked for the university for the last six months to be hired. The ePAF will be reviewed by several approvers until it is finally approved by Human Resources, the entity who completes the authorization to work.
- f. The Change of Personnel Action Plan (cPAF) is used for the request of changes to a current student employees' job data such as the funding source, hiring dates, number of hours per week, job position, pay rate, change in location and room number and change in department within the university. The cPAF will be reviewed by several approvers until it is finally approved by Human Resources, the entity who completes the authorization to work process.
- g. Wait for the e-mail from Human Resources authorizing the student to begin working.
- h. Student employees are recommended to follow up with the supervisor (hiring official) for the status of his/her assignment start date. It is also best practices for the supervisor to communicate and provide the student employee the status of the ePAF or cPAF in case there has been a delay in the approval process of the PAF. This will also prevent discouragement or withdrawal of application on the student's part.

IMPORTANT: Under any circumstance should a student employee be allowed to begin his/her assignment before Human Resources Office has authorized employment.

c. Updating the Applicant Status in Handshake

Once a selection has been made, the Applicant Status feature needs to be updated to “Hired”. This will communicate to other hiring officials that this student has been placed with a department and is no longer seeking employment.

Check out the steps found in the Hiring Guide (with screenshots) for updating the applicant status and to make sure you have followed the information you need for hiring either a new or returning student employee.

Interviewing Student Applicants

UTRGV encourages supervisors to perform over the phone or in person interviews with student finalists. Interviewing will not only foster fairness in the selection process but will also solidify the chosen candidate and will provide the student with valuable interviewing experience. The more practice the student gets, the better prepared the student will become for those interviews in their professional career.

- Steps for Interviewing

- Contact the student by phone or e-mail using the information provided on the student’s resume or job application. State the position for which you are calling/emailing about and give the student 2-3 possible time slots for the interview.
- Have a set of questions ready and ask all the applicants the same questions. Should assistance for developing questions be needed, the Interview Questions Guidelines can be accessed under the Human Resources website at <https://www.utrgv.edu/hr/files/documents/forms/resources/recruitment%20developing-interview-questions.pdf>.
- The interviewer should allow time to discuss with the student, the student’s class schedule, in order to predetermine the work schedule.
- It is best practice to inform the student, before ending the interview, that they will be contacted further by email or phone as the process is continued.

Job Posting

If the supervisor has created a job posting and has filled all the vacant positions before the application expiration date, the job posting needs to be closed out. The posting can be closed by SEO.

Hiring a Student Employee Under 18 Years Old

It is possible to hire a student under the age of 18 years old as long as the student is currently enrolled at UTRGV. Underage students are required to complete a Consent Form for Minors form that requires signatures from both the student and parent or legal guardian. For more information regarding hiring an underage student employee, please read <https://www.twc.texas.gov/jobseekers/texas-child-labor-law#hoursOfEmploymentFor1And1yearOlds>.

Job Titles, Classification Codes and Salary Rates

Student positions are set by classifications, where students perform a variety of jobs that significantly contribute to the functioning of UTRGV.

The job titles and classification codes are reserved for student employees only. Once a student is no longer meeting enrollment requirements, he/she can no longer be classified under a student job title.

ON THE JOB

Scheduling

It is recommended for supervisors to obtain the student's class schedule to determine his/her work schedule. The student's class schedule may change each semester; therefore, the student worker and supervisor should establish times in accordance with the student's class schedule. The department's needs should also be taken into consideration when assigning work hours. Any schedule conflicts should be discussed so that the work schedule may be finalized. Should the student not be able to adhere to the agreed upon work schedule, this may provide reason for termination from employment.

Student employees, under any circumstance, should not work more than 19 hours per week, be scheduled to work during class time, or be excused from class to report to work.

Student Employee Onboarding

- Orientation Checklist: The Supervisor's Guide to the New Employee On-Boarding Program located on The Human Resources Office website can be used for onboarding new student employees. It is a general guide aimed at new full-time employees; however the majority of the steps can be applied when hiring a student employee. institution, the supervisor must create an Employee Separation through the ePAF portal. If the student is not leaving the institution, a cPAF will be required. To access the ePAF system, click here.

Involuntary Termination: An involuntary termination is when the department has decided to end the student's assignment for a cause. It is best practice to follow the below steps before terminating a student's employment.

- Communicate with the student about the unsatisfactory behavior, conduct, and/or performance.
- Provide the student a plan of action for improvement. This will allow the student a fair opportunity to correct his/her behavior, conduct or performance.
- It is up to the supervisor to decide how many opportunities the student should receive for making improvements. Generally, two opportunities should suffice.
- If the student does not improve after guidance was provided, or the ill conduct/performance is serious, a notification should be sent to the student with the reason for releasing him/her of duties and the last day of work.
- If the termination was decided, the supervisor should ensure timecard is complete and a cPAF is created stating the end of assignment according to the last day of work.

Discipline, Dismissal and Termination (DDT)

The DDT action is to provide a procedure for the discipline and dismissal of a student employee who is subject to its requirements. All students who accept a student employment position at UTRGV, are bound to the University's policies and procedures, and are accountable for their actions and behaviors as articulated in the UTRGV Student Conduct and Discipline. All student employees are hired at-will and may be terminated with or without cause and with or without notice at any time by the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley. This handbook does not alter the at-will nature of any student employee's position at this university.

STUDENT EMPLOYEE JOB EXPECTATIONS

Workplace Conduct

Student employees are expected to assume an obligation to act in a professional manner, to have respect for the rights and property of others. Professional conduct can range from the manner in which customer service is delivered, whether in person or over the phone with which they perform their work according to UTRGV's established job standards.

Attendance, and Punctuality

UTRGV expects student employees to be at work at their scheduled start time and not leave before the end of their scheduled hours. Student employees are responsible for informing their supervisor when they will be delayed. Excessive tardiness will result in discipline, up to and including termination.

Absences

Student employees are required to communicate with their supervisors no later than the beginning of the work schedule, in the event he/she is unable to report to work. Absences affects project deadlines as someone else will be required to complete the work. The amount of work may be completed; however, the quality might not be the same. Absences are not paid.

Communication

Student employees are expected to communicate with their supervisor regarding any issues or concerns involving their job responsibilities, operations of the office and/or concerns. Communication decreases any conflict or misunderstandings in the workplace, creates better relationships with supervisor and peers, and increases engagement.

Mentoring, Supervision & Learning Evaluations

Supervisors have many roles to play in developing and guiding student employees to achieve academic and student success simultaneously. Some of the key roles supervisors play are:

- Coaching and mentoring the student so he or she can grow and develop professionally by providing ongoing positive and constructive feedback that creates awareness and results in performance improvement.
- Offering department insights and continually communicating information to guide the student employee.
- Setting semester performance and developmental goals that will strengthen the student contribution as well as increasing overall performance for the department.
- Continuously create opportunities for your student to apply classroom learning in hands-on work experiences.

Student employment fosters students the opportunity to build professional and technical skills; therefore, students should not work unsupervised.

At the end of each semester, students will be asked to complete a goal settings and end-of-the year learning evaluation. This activity is aimed to reflect on the student employment experience and encourage the student to think strategically about career goal alignment.

Supervisors will also be asked to complete and end of the semester assessment for their respective student workers.

Confidentiality

Student employees may have access to confidential data such as financial information, employee information, grades, telephone numbers, and addresses, etc. However, students are not allowed to share this information with others or use for their own for any reason not connected with UTRGV business. Releasing information of confidentiality to an unauthorized person, such as a friend, outside caller or other department, can result in termination due to a violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act \(FERPA\) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records whereby parents or eligible students have the right to inspect and review the student's education records, and the right to request that a school correct records, and that schools must have written permission from the parent or eligible student in order to release any information from a student's education record.

Workplace Attire

Student employment is a training ground for professional employment and the way one presents himself/herself is important. A student employee is expected to report to work in clothes that are neat and clean and that appropriately reflect the specific position he or she holds. When in question, the supervisor has the discretion to make the decision on what constitutes appropriate attire. Good personal hygiene and grooming is a must.

Telephone Usage

Office telephones are for the use of the office business and should not be used for personal and in urgent cases. Urgent calls should be kept at a minimum. It is important to also remind students to limit the use of their cell phones.

APPLICABLE EMPLOYMENT POLICIES

Equal Employment Opportunity

<https://www.utrgv.edu/hop/policies/adm-04-206.pdf> HOP04-206

UTRGV will maintain recruitment, selection, and appointment processes reflecting the institution's commitment to equal opportunity and affirmative action and complying with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations. Discrimination by any UTRGV employee during recruitment, selection, or appointment processes, or during the operation of any UTRGV programs, activities, or services on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, disability, age, veteran status, national origin, gender identity or expression, genetic information or sexual orientation is prohibited. Further, to the extent permitted by applicable law, UTRGV shall make good faith efforts to implement its Affirmative Action Plan. In pursuit of these objectives, all regular positions must be filled using one of these defined processes: external recruitment or internal recruitment. The hiring official, in coordination with Human Resources, will determine the process most appropriate for filling the vacant position. All employees involved in recruitment, selection, or appointment processes are expected to comply with all applicable UTRGV or University of Texas System policies and with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations.

Federal Work Study Earnings Limitations

The amount specified by the department, does not mean that the student will earn that amount. Students can earn up to the maximum work-study award based on their eligibility for the employment periods. The work study amount entered in the student's PAF will be updated by the Financial Aid office, therefore, supervisors should ensure to view the encumbrance after the assignment is finalized for the student's award.

Keep the following in mind:

- Work-Study awards are to provide the student with employment from Sept-May.
- High pay-rates and high weekly hours will exhaust the work-study award at a faster rate.

- The ePAF/cPAF does not actually encumber the funds from the department. Funds are encumbered with each pay period.
- The “Encumbrance calculator” is a tool on the ePAF system, that can help the department calculate their contribution prior to submitting the assignment.

Overtime

Student employees are not allowed to work overtime hours. Student employees cannot work past the maximum number of hours allocated on their ePAF/CPAF and cannot work before or after the specified start and end dates on the mentioned document.

Holidays

Student employees are not required to work during UTRGV scheduled holidays. To view Holiday Schedule, go to utrgv.edu >HR>Forms.

Multiple Positions and Obligations

Working multiple positions simultaneously on campus are not recommended for student employees. At the time of hiring, students are strongly encouraged to inform their supervisor if he/she has a current job at another department.

RECOGNITION AND AWARDS-NATIONAL STUDENT EMPLOYEE WEEK

Student Employee of the Year – Each year, during the National Student Employment Week, student employees are recognized for their exceptional contribution to The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley. In effort to recognize an outstanding student employee, departments are encouraged to submit nominations for that exceptional student employee. The winner receives recognition, an award and a scholarship at the Student Employee of the Year Ceremony at UTRGV.

Supervisor of the Year - Supervisors are mentors who play a big role on the student’s skills development for future professional employment; therefore, they are nominated by their mentees, to receive this award and recognition at the Student Employee of the Year Ceremony at UTRGV.
