

ON SITE COMPONENT REPORT FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Immigration regulations state: "For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one (1) class or three (3) credits per session, may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken online or through distance education and does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class." (8 C.F.R. § 214.2 (f)(6)(i)(G))

If student is enrolled in an online course which put them above and beyond their allowable limit, a blended or hybrid on-site class needs to be followed.

These are the requirements to qualify for a hybrid course:

- 1. The student must report in person to the professor of the specified online course no less than fourtimes within that given semester.
2. The student must obtain signature from his/her professor after each meeting.
3. The student must obtain initial acknowledgement at the beginning of the semester and final approval at the end of the semester from an advisor at International Admissions and Student Services.
