10. VISA & INSURANCE

Visa

D-2-6 Visa

All students are responsible for applying for an exchange student visa (D-2-6) by submitting the Certificate of Admission(표준입학허가서) to the Korean Consulate in their home country.

In the Case of Korean Dual Nationals

Applicants who hold Korean nationality are required to enter Korea using a Korean passport. In addition, applicants who do not require a D-2 (Student) visa—such as those eligible for an F-series visa (e.g., Overseas Korean visa)—are kindly requested to inform us in advance.

Insurance

All exchange students are required to have insurance coverage during their stay in Korea. They must be enrolled in both the National Health Insurance Service\(NHIS\), which requires monthly payments, and private insurance(either the PNU Group Insurance or individually arranged insurance).

In some cases, students may apply for an exemption from enrollment in the NHIS. Please refer to the insurance guidelines that will be provided later and apply for the exemption individually if applicable.
