ADMISSION PROCESS

REQUIRED/RECOMMENDED LANGUAGE SKILLS

Spanish*

In general, the language of Instruction is Spanish. Nevertheless, some courses are taught in English (see below)

REQUIRED LEVEL of Spanish*

For those students taking courses in Spanish:

General rule: B1 (minimum required), B2 (highly recommended)

Specific rules: B2 is mandatory for the following programs::

- Master’s programs
- Faculty of Economics and Business
- Faculty of Philosophy and Arts, for the following degrees:
 - Hispanic Studies
 - Modern Languages, Culture and Communication

* IMPORTANT: The limited number of courses taught in English means that most exchange students will need to take the majority of their courses in Spanish. Therefore, students must have or provide proof of a sufficient level of Spanish.

Spanish Language Certificate Required

It is mandatory to submit a Spanish language certificate for students nominated to the following faculties:

- School of Engineering (Escuela Politécnica Superior) (B1 UG, B2 for Mast)
- Faculty of Law (B1)
- Faculty of Medicine (B1)
- Faculty of Sciences (B1 for undergraduate, B2 for Master’s)
- Faculty of Teacher Training and Education for Master’s programs (B2).
- Faculty of Philosophy and Arts for the degrees on Hispanic Studies and Modern Languages, Culture and Communication it is required to demonstrate a B2 level of competence in Spanish, preferably through the DELE or SIELE diploma.
 - If the applicant does not hold one of these diplomas, a B2 certificate issued by the home university will be accepted, provided it is duly signed by the head of the department and only if the applicant is a Hispanic Linguistic student.
 - In exceptional cases, the Spanish coordinator at UAM may require an interview with the applicant to assess their command of the language.

In all other cases, sending a Spanish language certificate is not required. However, it is the responsibility of the home university to ensure that the student meets the language requirements.
