

The Advanced Placement Policy

Advanced placement and waiver of courses in the Department of Physician Assistant professional curriculum are not available to applicants nor enrolled students in the program. All students and applicants must complete the entire professional curriculum in residence at the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley.

The Department of Physician Assistant does not admit students from other physician assistant studies programs. All currently or formerly enrolled physician assistant students at other physician assistant programs must participate in a competitive admissions process along with all other applicants.