

YOUR CHOICES FOR HELP

SEXUAL ASSAULT ● SEXUAL VIOLENCE ● RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE ● STALKING

Office for Victim Advocacy & Violence Prevention (OVAVP), Office of Institutional Equity & Diversity (OIED), and The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley Police Department (UTRGV PD) stand ready to support those who have experienced sexual violence.

Do you want to file an official complaint?

YES,
I want to make a report.

UTRGV PD

(956) 882-4911
If this is an off-campus emergency, dial 911

University PD provides law enforcement services at all UTRGV locations.

Promotes safety

Investigates complaints

Provides info about on- and off- campus services/resources

- Reports to Title IX Office
- Victim Services Specialist available at (956) 665-3164
- May report to local law enforcement, who may have jurisdiction/authority
- Can refer matters to the County District Attorney's office for prosecution

Title IX Office

(956) 665-2103 or
OIED@utrgv.edu

The office charged with addressing claims of sexual misconduct per policy.

- Provides supportive measures
- If you wish, they can connect you with police
- Take action to end any harassment or violence
- Provide notice of outcomes

NO,
I just want confidential help.

OVAVP Confidential Advocates

(956) 665-8287 or
OVAVP@utrgv.edu

OVAVP staff are designated to receive confidential reports and provide access to confidential assistance.

- Provide support services (advocacy, resources, and information)
- Trauma-informed counseling
- If you ask, connect you to police or OIED

*A report to OVAVP is not a report to the university and the university will take no further action on those reports, unless requested by victim/survivor.