

CHIEF PHYSICIAN EXECUTIVE, UT HEALTH RGV

Key Roles and Responsibilities

- Leads and directs the collaboration with management, medical staff, and other constituents to improve clinical operations, ensure quality and safety, build strategy, and grow patient volume across UT Health RGV.
- Provides physician leadership in development of health system programs, including UT Health RGV Specialty Care center (cancer/surgery center).
- Understands the issues and challenges facing the clinical, education and research elements of UTRGV SOM, assures clinical environment supports all missions, with a full understanding of and ability to respond effectively to elements that drive competitive advantage.
- Champions lean thinking, approaches, and methods of process improvement, and ongoing monitoring to continue improvement.
- Integrates clinical administrative leadership plans into existing channels to identify, develop, and mentor future leaders across the enterprise.