

ASSISTANT DEAN FOR ASSESSMENT, EVALUATION AND QUALITY, SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Key Roles and Responsibilities

- Guides faculty and administration in interpreting student assessment/evaluation results and identifying opportunities for continuous improvement of curricula, instruction, and assessment methods.
- Develops and directs programs in support of UTRGV's education mission and goals.
- Works with the Quality Director for Graduate Medical Education to establish quality programs in medical student education.
- Collaborates with other faculty to conduct educational research and develop scholarly publications.
- Designs research projects in assessment, evaluation and quality related to educational mission and analysis results with appropriate statistical techniques.