This two-day conference convenes leaders in clinical and academic bioethics to explore ethical questions and concerns in healthcare.

UPON CONCLUSION OF THIS COURSE, PARTICIPANTS SHOULD BE ABLE TO:

- Provide up-to-date information in clinical ethics relevant to their practice.
- Provide approaches to ethical reasoning that clarify ethical problems.
- Facilitate professional discussion of ethical challenges and decision-making in healthcare.
- Encourage professional networking for ongoing dialogue, support, and collaboration.

SESSION TOPICS

- Ethical Principles and Values
- Ethical Decision-Making
- Clinical settings where ethics discussions arise

JANUARY 25-26, 2020

UTRGV School of Medicine Auditorium

1210 W. Schunior St.

Edinburg, TX 78541

For more information or special accommodations, contact Mallaly Aleman at (956) 296-1551 or mallaly.aleman@utrgv.edu.