SCORES:

If you choose to report your scores, you will be able to view and print an Unofficial Score Report that shows your Quantitative, Verbal, and Total scores. An Official Score Report that includes your Analytical Writing Assessment and Integrated Reasoning scores will be made available to you online, and to designated score-report recipients, approximately 20 days after the test. You must respond to both essay questions and work on each multiple-choice section (Verbal and Quantitative) of the test to get an Official Report.

RETEST POLICY:

You may take the GMAT® test only once within any period of 16 consecutive calendar days and no more than 5 times a year.

TEST TAKERS WITH DISABILITIES:

Testing accommodations are available for test takers who meet certain eligibility criteria and properly document their request. To register as a test taker with a disability, you need to obtain a copy of the Supplement for Test Takers with Disabilities. You can order a copy by downloading it at www.mba.com or by contacting GMAT® Customer Service at 1-800-717-GMAT(4628) or 952-681-3680. You may also email your request to: GMATCandidateServicesAmericas@pearson.com. Include "Attention: GMAT Disability Services" on any emailed messages.
